

INTRODUCTION

CHIP MORRISON is an individual that knows no bounds. As a trainer, with over 36 years of combined real estate and sales experience, Chip has helped to build the successes of some of America's Leading individuals. As a former RE/MAX Broker/Owner for over 10 years ... he personally trained and coached the #1 agent in the world within RE/MAX International, as well as trained the #1 New Agent in Georgia, based upon units and dollars earned. Even his own brokerage firm RE/MAX Prestige, was recognized with an award for the highest income per agent, than any other company in Georgia. What does this mean to you? RESULTS!

As an industry leader, Chip has earned over six nationally recognized professional designations. Because of his leadership skills, he was appointed by his peers to the Presidency of the 50,000 member Council of Residential Specialist, which awards the highly coveted CRS designation in real estate.

As an author, he has written two books as well as dozens of articles for numerous national publications. His article, "14 Reasons Why For Sale By Owners Should Hire You," was so popular, it was featured on the cover of the 450,000 member National Association of REALTORS Magazine.

As an entrepreneur, Chip owns two real estate investment companies, and with his wife, Kathy, two residential real estate brokerage operations. Because of his talents and unique blend of humor, Chip is a regular sought after and keynote speaker at conventions and trade association workshops ... world-wide.
